This Article of Agreement, Made and entered unto on this 10th day of April, A. D. 1916, by and between L. D. Pace, party of the first part, and Rosa Pace, party of the second party, Witnesseth as follows: The parties hereto being husband and wife agree to separate and not live together as husband and wife any more, and in consideration thereof they have agreed upon and made an equitable division of their property. They have one child and it is agreed that each party shall have the custody of such child for one-half of the time until it attains its majority, and the party of the first part agrees to cloth him in a suitable manner. It is further agreed and understood that if the party of the first part should commence an action to obtain a divorce from the party of the second part that the party of the second part will make no defense to such action. And the said party of the second part hereby renounces and relinquishes to the party of the first part all claim which she may have against him for her future support, and she hereby releases the said party of the first part of all obligations for her support in the future and she hereby waives, releases and relinquishes all the claims against him, or against his property for both permanent and temporary alimony and for support, suit money or attorneys fees. And in case the said party of the second party should commence a suit against the party of the first part for a divorce the party of the first part hereby renounces, and relinquishes all claims against the party of the second part for future support and he waives, releases and relinquishes all claims against the party of the second part for future support and for all obligations for his support, and he waives, releases and relinquishes all claims against her, or against her
