ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

of the

WORLD AUTOMOBILE TRAVELERS

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, being each and all of lawful age and residents and citizens of the State of Iowa, do hereby associate ourselves together into a body corporate under the provisions of Chapter 394, Title 19, of the 1924 Code of Iowa, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, assuming all powers, rights and privileges granted such bodies corporate, and to that end do hereby adopt the following:-

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be World Automobile Travelers.

ARTICLE II.

The principal office and place of business of the corporation shall be at Winterset, in the County Of Madison and State of Iowa.

ARTICLE III.

The general objects and purposes of this corporation shall be as follows:

(a) To establish, promote and maintain an organization of all individuals, persons, corporations, associations and clubs interested in motor travel.

(b) To provide efficient motoring service for its members by such means and to such extent as may be determined by the Board of Directors, acting in accordance with the statute and these articles.

(c) To cooperate in securing national, state and local legislation for the advancement, promotion and protection of the interests of users of motor vehicles, and to secure the enactment and enforcement of proper laws and regulations governing the use of such vehicles.

(d) To promote and encourage the construction and maintenance of good roads and streets and the adequate marking thereof, and to secure protection to its members and the public in the use and enjoyment of such streets and highways.

(e) To promote and encourage the development of a spirit of cooperation and courtesy among the users of highways.

(f) To collect and disseminate touring information.

(g) To do all things necessary to promote the welfare of all who own or drive motor vehicles or are interested therein.

(h) To affiliate with or secure membership in any and all other motoring bodies, state, national or otherwise, as may be deemed advisable by the executive board, and to promote and facilitate the organization and maintenance of associations and clubs with the same or similar objects, wherever situated, and to make membership in this club accessible to all such other associations and clubs in accordance with the conditions governing membership in this club.

(i) To have, possess and exercise all other rights, powers and privileges not enumerated herein, which, nevertheless, may be held or exercised by corporations not for pecuniary profit in the State of Iowa, and which are reasonably consistent with the purposes of its organization hereinbefore set forth. No citation, expression or declaration of specific powers herein enumerated shall be deemed to be exclusive but all other lawful powers not inconsistent herewith are hereby included and it shall have a suitable corporate seal.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. Membership in this corporation shall be divided into four classes: (a) automobile clubs or associations; (b) individual members; (c) life members; (d) honorary members.

ACME-BLACKMAR CO. BURLINGTON 78166

Section 2. Any automobile club existing or operating in a county, municipality or other political subdivision of the State of Iowa, in which no member club exists or operates, or with the consent of such member club, where one does exist or operate, may be admitted to membership in this corporation by a majority vote of those present at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors.

Section 3. Any individual resident of the State of Iowa (including corporations, partnerships or associations having legal entity as a person) who is interested in motoring or in the objects and purposes of this corporation may be admitted to membership from any city, of the State of Iowa not having a member club, and from any such city, county or political subdivision county or political subdivision in which there is a member club by consent of such member club. All applications shall be acted upon by the board of directors and shall require a majority vote of those present at any regular or special board meeting. The method of making application for membership, the information required to be furnished by the applicant at the time of such application, and the rules governing admission to membership, not inconsistent with these articles, shall be determined by the board of directors.

Section 4. Life membership in this corporation may be granted to members of the class of applicants referred to in Section 3 of this Article, under such conditions and on payment of such membership dues as may be fixed by the board of directors.

Section 5. Honorary membership in this corporation may be awarded by the board of directors, and all ex-presidents of this corporation and all who may hereafter serve in this capacity, shall be enrolled as honorary members.

Section 6. The members of this corporation shall consist of those who are admitted to membership, as provided by this Article, and who pay their dues in the amounts and at the times fixed by the board of directors for each class of members herein provided for.

Section 7. Membership in this corporation shall not be transferable but any member in good standing not in arrears or indebted to the corporation, may withdraw from membership at any time. Upon acceptance of such withdrawal by the board of directors, such member shall forfeit all his rights and privileges in the corporation's property.

Section 8. The board of directors may expel from membership any member of the corporation for failure to make payment of dues within the times fixed by the board of directors, or for conduct which, in the judgment of said board, is detrimental to the interests of the corporation. No member shall be expelled from membership except by a majority vote of the board of directors at a regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE V.

The corporate period of this corporation shall commence upon the date of filing these Articles of Incorporation in the office of the County Recorder of Madison County, Iowa, and its corporate existence shall terminate at the expiration of fifty (50) years from said date, unless sooner dissolved by a three-fourths vote of all members of the corporation or by Act of General Assembly or by operation of law. The corporation shall have the same rights in renewing its corporate existence as are accorded to corporations not for pecuniary profit under the laws of the State of Iowa.

ARTICLE VI.
