I, John H. Scott of the County and State aforesaid, being first duly sworn do on oath depose and say,

That I was on the 17th day of December, 1855 and on the 16th day of October 1858 well acquainted with James Monroe Tipton, and that said James Monroe Tipton was the same person who on the 17th day of December 1855, at the United States Land Office at Chariton Iowa located Military Bounty Land Warrant Number 9220 Act of March 3, 1855 upon the South East Quarter of Section Thirty Five (35) in Township Seventy Five (75) North, Range Twenty Nine (29) West Fifth Principal Meridian Iowa.

That by some oversight said location was made in the name of Monroe Tipton, instead of James M. Tipton.

That on the 16th day of October 1858 said James Monroe Tipton assigned the Certificate of location of said Military Bounty Land Warrant to me and my heirs and assigns forever. That said assignment so made was signed and acknowledged by said Tipton by the signature of James M. Tipton.

That said James M. Tipton and said Monroe Tipton are one and the same person.

That I now have no interest whatever in said land, having conveyed the same to my son Orange J. Scott, (who is now a resident of Madison County State of Iowa) by deed dated October 11, 1859.

John H. Scott

Subscribed and sworn to before me by said John H. Scott this 12" day of November A. D. 1877.
