State of Iowa ;
Madison County ; ss

I, Newton S. Baughman of the County and State aforesaid being duly sworn, on oath depose and say, that in the application I made to the Union Central Life Insurance .....of Cincinnatti, Ohio, for a loan of Three Thousand ($3000.00) Dollars, in listing my indebtedness through mistake there was listed a mortgage of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars given by me to Susan Brunskill of Cayuga, Illinois, this being an error in filling out the application, as there never was any such mortgage given by me to Susan Brunskill, on the land described in said application, or any other land, but said indebted....of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars was a personal promissory note given by my individual self to the said Susan Brunskill of Cayuga, Illinois, for Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, which note was not given until about March 10th, 1904 and is due Three years after date. At the time said application was made for said loan there was no such indebted... against me, only that I had made arrangement with Susan Brunskill to furnish me said amount on my promissory note about March 1st 1904. I further depose and say that there is no other incumberance against the land described in the mortgage given by myself and wife to the Union Central Life Insurance Company, for $3000.00, bearing date March 16, 1904 to my knowledge.
