AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF IOWA :
SS:
MADISON COUNTY :

I, Kathryn Larrimer, being first duly sworn, do upon my oath depose and say that I was the wife of A. L. Larrimer who died intestate a resident of Winterset, Madison County, Iowa, on the 27th day of April, 1933; that I am, since the death of said A. L. Larrimer, his surviving widow.

That my first name is sometimes spelled "Cathryn" and that in the application I have made for a home loan, my name is spelled "Cathryn" but that my true and correct name is "Kathryn" and wherever my first name appears and is spelled with a "C" same is incorrect as it should be "K".

That my husband, A. L. Larrimer, was, at the time of his death, the owner of a store building located on the middle one-third of Lot 8 of Block 11 of the Original Town Plat of Winterset, Madison County, Iowa; that for a long time prior to his death, we had made our home at and resided in said property and that since his death, I have continued to make my home and residence at said property and that the same is of a homestead character.

That at the time of my husband's death, I came into the possession of all of his property and that his real property consisted of the property above set out and of the value not to exceed $6,000.00 and that the personal property would not exceed in value the sum of $1,000.00.

That A. L. Larrimer was married but once and there were no children born to our marriage; that his sole and only heirs-at-law were myself and his mother, Mrs. Jennie Young of Hay Springs, Nebraska. That under the laws of the State of Iowa, I am, as the surviving spouse of deceased, entitled to $7500.00 plus one-half of the excess of all his property, and that after the payment of debts of the deceased, there would not be sufficient property at an exhorbitant estimate to pay the $7500.00 to which I am entitled before his mother, Mrs. Jennie Young, would receive any property as an heir-at-law.

That at the time of my husband's death, he owed a few small accounts, all of which have been taken care of and paid by me. That the only other indebtedness my husband owed at the time of his death was a promissory note of $4500.00 payable to the Madison County Savings Bank and secured by a first mortgage on the real estate above described.

That there is no inheritance tax due or to become due on the property that I inherited from my husband for the reason that I am entitled under the laws of the State of Iowa to an exemption of $40,000.00 before any tax can be charged against the property in my husband's estate, and that said property would not amount to, in total, one-sixth of the amount allowed me as exemption.

All the statements made herein are true and correct and made for the purpose of showing the true condition of affairs of the property owned by my husband at the time of his death and which has since come into my possession.

Kathryn Larrimer

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me by the said Kathryn Larrimer this 28th day of April, A. D. 1934.
