H. C. Fosher being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

That I am well and personally acquainted with the Catherine Hamilton who is the grantee in the quit claim deed executed by J. E. E. Hamilton during his lifetime.

That to my personal knowledge said grantee, Catherine Hamilton, was the wife of said grantor, J. E. Hamilton, at the time of the execution of the above mentioned quit claim deed, and the failure to so state in said deed must have been an oversight on the part of the person who prepared said instrument.

That I am in no way interested.
