AFFIDAVIT

CLYDE GILLOGLY to THE PUBLIC
STATE OF IOWA, MADISON COUNTY)SS:

I, Clyde Gillogly, being duly sworn, depose and say: that I am a resident of Madison County, Iowa, living at Patterson, in said County, and am of legal age; that I have lived all my life in Madison County, Iowa; that I am a grandson of John Gillogly who is named as grantee in a deed dated November 26, 1881, recorded in Deed Record 5, of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 239, by which Lot 5, in Book 2, in the Town of Patterson, in Madison County, Iowa, was conveyed to him; that I was personally acquainted with said John Gillogly, and know that he died in the year 1891 or 1892, and that at the time of his death he was a resident of Madison County, Iowa, and was buried in Madison County, Iowa; that I know the facts concerning the members of his family, and his descendants, hereinafter stated; that he left as his only children four daughters, to wit: Amanda, who married Charles Fullhart; Caroline, who married W. M. White; Frankie, who married Fritz Lorenzen; Josie, who married John Arnold; and two sons, W. F. Gillogly and James A. Gillogly; that said James A. Gillogly was the father of this affiant; that said daughter Caroline, who married W. M. White, died prior to the date of the quit claim deed dated November 9, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 13 of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 107, and she left surviving her said W. M. White, her husband, who had not remarried at said last mentioned date, and a daughter named Alie White, who was unmarried at the time of the making of said deed, and a daughter named Florence Stone, whose husband was M. E. Stone, and a son named Charley White, whose wife was Mary White, and that said Caroline White died intestate, a resident of Lucas County, Iowa, and that said Alie White, Florence Stone and Charley White who signed said deed last hereinbefore referred to, were her only children and heirs at law; that said Frankie Lorenzen, who married Fritz Lorenzen, died prior to the date of the quit claim deed dated November 9, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 13 of Madison County, Iowa, at Page 108, and she left surviving her said husband, Fritz Lorenzen, who had not remarried at said last-mentioned date, and a daughter named Della Tilp, whose husband was Chas. Tilp, and a daughter named Nora E. Lorimor, whose husband was Howard R.

Lorimor, and a son named John Lorenzen, whose wife was Ella Lorenzen, and that said Frankie Lorenzen died intestate, a resident of Madison County, Iowa, and that said Della Tilp, Nora E. Lorimor and John Lorenzen who signed said deed last hereinbefore referred to were her only children and heirs at law; that Josie Arnold died prior to the date of the quit claim deed dated December 18, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 11 of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 495, and she left surviving her a daughter named Dollie Rucker, whose husband was Jas. P. Rucker, and a son named Charles Arnold, whose wife was Daisy Arnold, and a son named J. R. Arnold, whose wife was Hazel Arnold, and a son named George Arnold, whose wife was Cecil Arnold, and that Josie Arnold left a surviving spouse, John Arnold, who died prior to Dec 18, 1912, without remarrying, and that Josie Arnold died intestate and that said Dollie Rucker, Charles Arnold, J. R. Arnold and George Arnold who signed said deed last hereinbefore referred to were her only Children and heirs at law; that the Amanda Fullhart, who, with her husband Charles Fullhart, is named as grantor in the deed dated November 1, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 13 of Madison County, Iowa, Records, at page 105, was a daughter of said John Gillogly; that W. F. Gillogly who, with his wife Rebecca A. Gillogly, is named a grantor in the deed dated November 2, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 13 of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 106, was a son of said John Gillogly; that James A. Gillogly, who, with his wife S. J. Gillogly, is named as grantor in the deed dated December 2, 1912, recorded in Deed Record 13 of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 109, was a son of said John Gillogly; that I have been well and personally acquainted with the title and ownership and possession and occupancy of the real estate described as Lots 5, 7, and 8, in Block Two (2), of the Original Town of Patterson, Iowa, since prior to the year 1918, and I lived in the neighborhood where said lots are located, during all of that time, and that I know that Samuel Blosser, with whom I was well and personally acquainted, was in possession of all lots 5, 7, and 8, in Block Two (2) of the Original Town of Patterson, Iowa, prior to the beginning of the year 1919, under color of title and claim of right, and that he was in actual, open, notorious, continuous, adverse, exclusive, and uninterrupted possession, occupancy and control of all of said real estate under color of title and claim of right until his death, which occurred on December 4, 1930, and that since his death, his widow, A. J. Blosser, who is also known as Alis J. Blosser, with whom I was well and personally acquainted, was in actual, open, notorious, continuous, adverse, exclusive, and uninterrupted possession, occupancy and control of all of said real estate, under color of title, and claim of right under her life estate under the last will and testament of said Samuel Blosser, until her death, which occurred on September 5, 1946, and that since her death no claim has been made to said real estate by anybody hostile to the rights established under the last will and testament of said Samuel Blosser, deceased, and no possession of said real estate, or any part thereof, has been taken by anybody hostile to such rights. That I have no interest in this matter except to help establish the facts.

All of which is true as I verily believe.
