Note: Iowa Code Sec. 249A54(1) as amended provides in part that "the third party shall obtain a written determination from the department concerning the amount of the lien before a settlement is deemed final for purposes of this section". This claim cannot be released by the injured person or the injured person's attorney. Any payment made by the liable third party without first disposing of this claim can subject the liable third party and/or their attorneys to the risk of double liability.

I certify under the penalty of perjury and pursuant to the laws of the State of Iowa (Iowa Code Sec. 622.1) that the preceding is true and correct. This lien applies only to the proceeds from a settlement or legal action relating to injuries sustained as a result of the trauma/accident identified above.
