My Attorney-in-Fact shall have full power and authority to manage and conduct all of my affairs, with full power and authority to exercise or perform any act, power, duty, right or obligation I now have or may hereafter acquire the legal right, power and capacity to exercise or perform. The power and authority of my Attorney-in-Fact shall include, but not be limited to, the power and authority:

negotiable, at a rate of interest and upon terms satisfactory to my Attorney-in-Fact; to lend money, either with or without collateral; to extend or secure credit; and to guarantee and insure the performance and payment of obligations of another person or entity;

D. To open, maintain or close accounts, brokerage accounts, savings and checking accounts; to purchase, renew or cash certificates of deposit; to conduct any business with any banking or lending institution in regard to any of my accounts or certificates of deposit; to write checks, make deposits, make withdrawals and obtain bank statements, passbooks, drafts, money orders, warrants, certificates or vouchers payable to me by any person or entity, including the United States of America, and expressly including the right to sell or cash U.S. Treasury Securities and Series E, EE, and H and HH Bonds;

E. To have full access to any safety deposit boxes and their contents;

F. G. To act as proxy, with full power of substitution, at any corporate meeting and to initiate corporate meetings for my benefit as stockholder, in respect to any stocks, stock rights, shares, bonds, debentures or other investments, rights or interests;

H. To invest, re-invest, sell or exchange any assets owned by me and to pay the assessments and charges therefor; to obtain and maintain life insurance upon my life or upon the life of anyone else; to obtain and maintain any other types of insurance policies; to continue any existing plan of insurance or investment;

M. To transfer, assign, convey, and deliver any real or personal property in which I may have or own an interest to the Trustee of any revocable trust created by me, if such trust is in existence at the time, notwithstanding the fact that my Attorney-in-Fact, or his or her spouse, descendants, heirs or assigns, may be the (a) Trustee or successor Trustee of any such trust, (b) beneficiary of any such trust; or (c) holder of any special or general power of appointment created under such trust. O. To make gifts of any of my property or assets to members of my family; and to make gifts to such other persons or religious, educational, scientific, charitable or other nonprofit organizations to whom or to which I have an established pattern of giving.

3. Construction.

This Power of Attorney is to be construed and interpreted as a general power of attorney. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts or powers shall not limit or restrict the general and all-inclusive powers that I have granted to my Attorney-in-Fact. All references to property or property rights herein shall include all real, personal, tangible, intangible or mixed property. Words and phrases set forth in this Power of Attorney shall be construed as in the singular or plural number and as masculine, feminine or neuter gender according to the context.

Any authority granted to my Attorney-in-Fact, however, shall be limited so as to prevent this Power of Attorney (a) from causing my Attorney-in-Fact to be taxed on my income; (b) from causing my estate to be subject to a general power of appointment (as that term is defined by Section 2041 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) by my Attorney-in-Fact; and (c) from causing my Attorney-in-fact to have any incidents of ownership (within the meaning of Section 2042 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) with regard to any life insurance policies on the life of my Attorney-in-Fact.

4. Liability of Attorney-in-Fact.

My Attorney-in-Fact shall not be liable for any loss sustained through an error of judgment made in good faith, but shall be liable for willful misconduct or breach of good faith in the performance of any of the provisions of this power of attorney.

5. Compensation of Attorney-in-Fact.

The Attorney-in-Fact understands that this power of attorney is given without any express or implied promise of compensation to said Attorney-in-Fact. Any services performed as my Attorney-in-Fact will be done without compensation, either during my lifetime or upon my death, but the Attorney-in-Fact shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred as a result of carrying out any provisions of this power of attorney.

6. Accounting by Attorney-in-Fact.

My Attorney-in-Fact shall maintain complete and accurate records of all acts performed pursuant to this power of attorney, including, without limitation, all receipts and disbursements. Upon my request or the request of any conservator appointed on my behalf or the personal representative of my estate, my Attorney-in-Fact shall allow inspection of these records and shall provide a complete accounting.

7. Effective Date and Durability.

This Power of Attorney shall be effective immediately, shall not be affected by my disability, and shall continue effective until my death; provided, however, that this Power of Attorney may be revoked by me as to my Attorney-in-Fact at any time by written notice to such Attorney-in-Fact.

HIPAA and Protected Health Information. If any person's authority under the instrument is dependent upon any determination that I am unable properly to manage my affairs, then any physician attending me or otherwise requested by my Agent to determine my incapacity, and any other person or entity in possession of any of my "protected health information," as contemplated by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"), is hereby authorized and directed to disclose my protected health information to my Agent to the extent necessary, and only to the extent necessary, for my Agent to determine whether an event of incapacity has occurred hereunder. Any limitation on protected health information to be disclosed hereunder shall have no effect upon any rights to such information any agent may have under any Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care or other instrument granting access to such information.
