Pre-Nuptial Marriage Agreement

We the undersigned George H. Hendrickson Jr. and Debra S. Courtney are totally in agreement of what is written in this Pre-Nuptial agreement on this date of February 23rd 2001.

In the case of any dissolution of this marriage due to divorce or separation, all properties of each that were acquired before and brought into this marriage shall revert back to sole possession of said person.

This would be real estate property, and personal belongings, such as vehicles, furniture, home decorations, clothing, jewelry, etc.

All investments towards pension plans will remain the sole investment of said person.

All money in savings accounts or joint investments shall be split evenly.

In case of death of one or both parties, this would be settled through the joint Last Will and Testament that we will have made and recorded.
