EXHIBIT "A"

- 1. Sellers and Buyers acknowledge and agree that Buyers are purchasing the real estate in its "as is" condition. Sellers make no warranties, express or implied, concerning the structural condition of the buildings, nor do Sellers make any warranties, express or implied, concerning condition and/or function of the electrical, mechanical, heating and cooling systems. Buyers expressly agree to accept the real estate in its "as is" condition.
- 2. Buyers shall have the right to prepay principal in any amount on any date without penalty.
- 3. Buyers shall have the option in their sole discretion to skip one principal payment during the term of the contract for any reason. If Buyers skip a principal payment during the term of the contract, said principal payment shall be added to the final payment to be made on March 1, 2012. If Buyers skip a principal payment, said payment shall not be considered delinquent under the terms of this contract. Buyers will be required to make all interest payments as set forth in this real estate contract.
- 4. It is expressly agreed between Sellers and Buyers that upon the execution of this real estate contract and the payment of $40,000.00 as required by said contract, the Buyers shall be entitled to receive a Warranty Deed for three acres in the northeast corner of the real estate subject to this real estate contract. Said three acres located in the northeast corner shall be contiguous and abut against the public roads to the east and north of said three acres. Sellers expressly agree to sign a Warranty Deed conveying title to said three acres to Buyers whenever the deed is delivered to Sellers for execution. Buyers expressly agree to pay all costs incurred for the survey of said three acres.
- 5. Buyers shall have the option to remove or alter any farm buildings subject to this contract as they deem necessary in their sole discretion.
