All, except the real estate contract is for delivery to said grantees when and only when said contract between Sellers and Buyers is fully performed.

The delivery of this deed and abstract is a completed delivery and unconditional, absolute and irrevocable except under the conditions following:

- (a) Forfeiture or foreclosure of the contract as provided by law.
- (b) Other devolution of the title or interest in said property, or change in the legal status of some of the parties which makes the escrowed deed useless.
- (c) All parties or successors in interest give the escrow agent specific directions in writing cancelling this escrow agreement or modifying its terms.
- (d) An adjudication by any court of competent jurisdiction ordering a variance in the original terms of the escrow agreement or ordering its cancellation.

In the event of (a) (b) (c) or (d) above, the escrow shall be considered terminated and, unless otherwise ordered by the court as in (d) above or directed by the agreement of the parties as in (c) above, the escrowed papers and documents shall be returned to the Sellers, or their successors in interest, whereupon the duties of the Escrow Agent are terminated.

If the Buyers fully perform and are, at the time of such performance, entitled to the documents as a part of their chain of title, the Escrow Agent shall deliver same to Buyers. This authority shall include a delivery of said papers to a transferee authorized in writing by the Buyers.

Information in writing to Escrow Agent by either the Sellers or their representative that the Real Estate Contract is paid in full shall be complete and sufficient authority to deliver said documents to the Buyers.

The Escrow Agent shall have no responsibility whatever to see that Buyers and Sellers perform any of the terms of said contract between them, nor keep in force any insurance. Responsibility is limited to effecting the transfer of said papers and documents as herein expressly directed and agreed.

All parties shall share any reasonable expense of the Escrow Agent for services, legal or otherwise, necessarily incurred in carrying out his duties as such.

This escrow, power, authority, and direction may similarly be used by any and all members of your firm or successors thereof. You may at any time discharge your responsibility to the sellers and buyers or their respective successors in interest, by 10 _____ days actual notice to them, or written notice addressed to their last known address, of your election to do so. Your responsibility will terminate upon delivery of the papers to any successor escrow agent then designated by the parties or, in default of such designation, by return of the papers to the party depositing them.
