Mr. Campney:

With reference to your contract of sale to Steve Howell which was recorded and returned to you last week, the County Assessor has called to our attention there is an error in the legal description which we have set out in your "Exhibit A". We are also attaching the survey which has the correct legal.

This contract can not be corrected as to the record standing but if you wish to re-record or amend same you may do so. There will be a fee of $5.00 per page for any refiling. The Assessor and this office thought this should be called to your attention as will undoubtedly come up in future above.
