EASEMENT

I, Robert Cain, in return for the privilege of hooking on to the outlet line and using the water for cows on pasture, do grant Ray McLaughlin and all future owners the use of enough land to build and maintain a structure for the purpose of gathering and holding water for livestock.

Ray McLaughlin agrees to build and maintain an adequate fence along the south side of the structure. This structure to be constructed along the section line between Sections 25 and 36, T77-R26.

If at any time the land is no longer used for the above named purposes, this agreement becomes null and void.

This agreement shall be binding upon us and all future owners as long as the structure is in use.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Grantors have executed this instrumenton the 18 day of July, 1977.
