Articles of Amendment

of

Madison County Coon Hunters Association, Inc.

To the Secretary of State of the State of Iowa:

We, the undersigned, duly elected president and secretary of Madison County Coon Hunters Association, Inc., a corporation existing under the Iowa Nonprofit Corporation Act by virtue of Chapter 504(a) of the laws of the 1979 Code of Iowa, submit the following Articles of Amendment for such corporation and state:

1. The name of the corporation is Madison County Coon Hunters Association, Inc.

2. The date on which the corporation existence began was May 8, 1980.

3. That the amendment designated below as Article X and Article XI were adopted by the members of said corporation at a meeting held on the 16 day of Sept, 1980; that a quorum of said membership was present at such meeting; and that such amendment received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting were entitled to cast.

The amendment so adopted is as follows:

ARTICLE X

A. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

B. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

ARTICLE XI

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, literary, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). The Corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit.

Dated this 22 day of Sept, 1980.
