AFFIDAVIT

State of Iowa, Adair County, SS.

I, Cecil Clark, being first duly sworn on oath depose and state that I am a son of George C. Clark, Deceased, who died a resident of Madison County, Iowa, on the 8th day of January, 1956. That the said George C. Clark died intestate and no administration was ever had on his estate. That at the time of his death the said George C. Clark was the owner along with Bertha E. Clark as joint tenants with right of survivorship of 80 acres of land in Madison County, Iowa, described as follows:

The West Half (W½) of the Southwest Quarter (SW¼) of Section Seventeen (17), Township Seventy-four (74) North, Range Twenty-nine (29) West of the 5th P. M.

That the said Bertha E. Clark was the surviving spouse of the said George C. Clark and she took title to said real estate under the survivorship provisions of the deed.

That at the time of his death the said George C. Clark had no interest in any real estate other than the above described real estate which had a value of not to exceed $6,000.00 in 1956, at the time of his death. That the said George C. Clark was also the owner of some livestock, feed and grain and certain horse drawn machinery of small value and a bank account not to exceed $1,000.00. That the total value of his personal property did not exceed the sum of $3,000.00 and that said property was used by the surviving spouse, Bertha E. Clark for the payment of his last illness and burial expense and that all debts and claims against the said George C. Clark was paid from said personal property by his surviving spouse, Bertha E. Clark and no estate was ever opened. That Maude Davis, Opal Roberts, Cecil Clark and Harold Clark are the children and sole heirs of the said George C. Clark and Bertha E. Clark both of whom are now deceased. That the exemptions allowed by law for both Iowa Inheritance Tax and Federal Estate Tax are far in excess of the value of the estate of George C. Clark and there was no such tax either due or payable by reason of the death of the said George C. Clark.
