Mary E. Welty, Recorder

STATE OF IOWA MADISON COUNTY : SS

I, Peggy Eichner of Winterset, Madison County, Iowa, being first duly sworn on oath, depose and say, to-wit:

That I have been a resident of Madison County, Iowa, for more than sixteen years last past and during this time I have lived in the neighborhood of and have been familiar with the title, ownership, and occupancy of the following described real property:

> The Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter (SE¼ SE¼) and the East 21¼ acres of the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) of the Southeast Quarter (SE¼) and the South 3 3/4 acres of the West 18 3/4 acres of the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) of the Southeast Quarter (SE¼) and the South Half (S½) of Twenty (20) acres in a square form in the Southeast corner of the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) all in Section Fifteen (15) in Township Seventy-six (76) North, Range Twenty-eight (28) West of the 5th P. M., Madison County, Iowa, except Railroad right of way.

That in connection with said property Harry C. Eichner and Cora Eichner, husband and wife, as joint tenants, and not as tenants in common, with right of survivorship, took title to said property by warranty deed dated and filed May 21, 1952, that said deed was filed of record in the office of the county recorder of Madison County, Iowa, in deed record 85 on page 403.

I further depose and say that Cora Eichner named in said deed as one of the joint tenants with right of survivorship is one and the identical person as Cora May Eichner who died a resident of Madison County, Iowa, on February 10, 1960, that the record of her death is filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of Madison County, Iowa in death record 4 on page 528. That at the time she died she was still the wife of Harry C. Eichner and was holding title to the aforesaid property with her husband as joint tenants. That her husband, Harry C. Eichner, survived her.

I further depose and say that at the time Cora Eichner also known as Cora May Eichner died that she died intestate and that her death was generally known in and about the community; that the estate of said decedent has not been administered upon; that all debts and claims, including the expense of the last sickness and burial, has been paid; that she was survived by her husband, Harry C. Eichner; and that the assets of her estate, including life insurance, before any liabilities deductable, was less than $15,000.00. That this valuation included the full value of any joint tenancy property which she owned at the time she died. That she made no gifts in excess of $100.00 in any one calendar year to any single individual.

I further depose and say that where the names Jim Harvey and Jimmy R. Harvey appear of record in connection with above described real property that it refers to one and the identical person, namely, Jimmy R. Harvey.

Further this affiant sayeth not.

Dated this 30th day of March A.D., 1968.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF IOWA MADISON COUNTY: SS

I, H. Claude Peer, of Earlham, Madison County, Iowa, being first duly sworn on oath depose and say as follows:

That as Attorney for Raymond Wahlert and Mary I. Wahlert, husband and wife, I did prepare and cause to be served a Notice of Forfeiture of Real Estate Contract on Archie B. Todd and Helen R. Todd, husband and wife.

That the Notice of Forfeiture of Real Estate Contract was served by Rex Rouse, Sheriff of Madison County, Iowa, on Archie B. Todd and Helen R. Todd, the purchasers under a written contract dated April 2, 1966.

That said Notice was served on December 14, 1966.

That at the time of preparation of said Notice of Forfeiture of Real Estate Contract and at all time thereafter I was the Attorney for Raymond Wahlert and Mary I. Wahlert, husband and wife, that I had in my possession the original Real Estate Contract by and between the parties, together with all records of payment and that at the time said Notice was served the Vendees, Archie B. Todd and Helen R. Todd, husband and wife, were delinquent in their payments in a total sum of $160.00.

I further depose and say that the vendees, Archie B. Todd and Helen R. Todd, husband and wife, or any party representing them, did not pay said delinquent amount, namely the sum of $160.00.

Dated this 22nd day of August A. D., 1967.
