STATE OF IOWA DALLAS COUNTY) SS

I, HERBERT R. SPENCER of said County and State, being first duly sworn, on oath depose and say that I am the husband of Lois E. Spencer, an heir-at-law of Bertha K. Henkle, deceased; that there are certain unpaid personal taxes against the partnership of Spencer and Perry of Macksburg for the year 1939 in the amount of $2.28 but that said tax is not the said Lois E. Spencer's personal tax; that she has never been in partnership with a man by the name of Perry and that she has never lived in Macksburg, Iowa, where said tax was assessed; that as to whose personal tax this might be I cannot say but the said unpaid personal tax is not a personal tax of the said Lois E. Spencer.

Further I sayeth not.

Herbert R. Spencer.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF IOWA MADISON COUNTY) SS

I, Charles D. Van Werden of said County and State, being first duly sworn, on oath depose and say that I was attorney for the Administrators of the estate of Bertha K. Henkle, who died intestate a resident of Earlham, Madison County, Iowa, on January 6, 1947, and whose estate was admitted to probate in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of Madison County, Iowa, under Probate File No. 4974 and found of record in Docket "J" at Page 319 of the records of said office. That in the inventory prepared by me and filed in said estate, through oversight in describing the real estate owned by Bertha K. Henkle, I inadvertently omitted the block in the description in the real estate. That said real estate should have been described as the East Half of Lots Four, Five and Six in Block Two of Nicholson's Addition to the Town of Earlham, Madison County, Iowa. That I also prepared the Final Report in said estate as of date of October 22, 1947, and that again I inadvertently omitted the block number in the description of said real estate and that where in said Final Report said real estate is described as the East Half of Lots Four, Five and Six of Nicholson's Addition to the Town of Earlham, Iowa, it should in truth and fact be described as the East Half of Lots Four, Five and Six in Block Two of Nicholson's Addition to the Town of Earlham, Iowa. That I personally know that at the time of her death Bertha K. Henkle was the owner of said lots in Block Two and was the owner of no other real property in the Town of Earlham, Iowa. That in said Final Report as filed in said estate, through accident and mistake I stated that the said Bertha K. Henkle died testate when in truth and in fact she died intestate and that her estate was probated as though she had died intestate and that it was a mis-statement as found in said Final Report when it was stated that said Decedent died testate. Further I sayeth not.

That I was also well and personally acquainted with the heirs-at-law, legatees and devisees of Jennie McKibben. That Mrs. Myrtle Ramsey who is named as a legatee and devisee in the Last Will and Testament of Jennie McKibben is not the same person as Clarice M. Henkle, said deed being found of record in Deed Record Book 30 at Page 424 of the records of the office of the County Recorder of Madison County Iowa; that through error, oversight and mistake I stated in said acknowledgement that I was a Notary Public in and for the County of Adair and State of Iowa; that I also signed as a Notary Public in and for Adair County. That said acknowledgement should have read that I was a Notary Public in and for Madison County, Iowa, and that I should have signed
