AFFIDAVIT

George E. Dolson and Gerard Michael Dolson to THE PUBLIC
STATE OF MISSOURI COUNTY OF JACKSON) ss

We, George E. Dolson and Gerard Michael Dolson, of lawful age, being duly sworn, depose and say; that we are sons of George E. Dolson and Rose Ann Dolson, his wife. That said George E. Dolson, the father of affiants, died in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, his residence, on June 1, 1943, intestate, and leaving, as his surviving spouse, Rose Ann Dolson, and as his only heirs at law his children, the following persons, to-wit: Helen M. Mann, who is married to Joseph B. Mann, Mary F. DeSimone, who is married to Ralph DeSimone, and George E. Dolson and Gerard Michael Dolson, affiants, both of whom are single and unmarried, and that said George E. Dolson, deceased, left no other child or children and no descendants of any deceased child or children, and that he never adopted any child or children.

That there has been no administration on the estate for said George E. Dolson, deceased. That said George E. Dolson died a few days prior to June 5, 1943, and was buried in a cemetery in the City of Des Moines, Iowa, known as St. Ambrose Cemetery, and that his burial occurred on June 5, 1943, and we were present at his burial, and persons who lived in the State of Iowa at that time knew of his death and were present at his burial, and his death was known in the State of Iowa, and was a matter of public knowledge in the State of Iowa, at the time of his burial and particularly in Madison County, Iowa, where he had formerly resided. That said George E. Dolson, deceased, left no debts unpaid and all expenses of his last illness and burial have been paid, and that no claims of any kind have been made or asserted against him or his property; that said George E. Dolson was retired and had not been engaged in any business or occupation for at least ten years prior to his death, and that we know the facts concerning his financial affairs.

That said Rose Ann Dolson, also known as Rose A. Dolson, died in Kansas City, Missouri on December 5, 1947; that she did not remarry after the death of her said husband; that she left as her sole and only heirs-at-law her children, namely: Helen M. Mann, who is married to Joseph B. Mann, Mary F. DeSimone, who is married to Ralph DeSimone, and George E. Dolson and Gerard Michael Dolson, the last two being these affiants; that said Rose Ann Dolson was buried in St. Ambrose Cemetery, Des Moines, Iowa, and that her burial occured on December 9, 1947, and we were present at her burial, and persons who lived in the State of Iowa at that time knew of her death, and her death was known in the State of Iowa and was a matter of public knowledge in the State of Iowa where she had formerly resided; that said Rose Ann Dolson left no debts remaining unpaid and all expenses of her funeral and last illness have been paid; that no claims of any kind have been asserted against her or her property in the State of Iowa or elsewhere.

That said George E. Dolson, deceased, was the son of George B. Dolson, who died in the year 1920, intestate, a resident of Douglas Township in Madison County, in the State of Iowa.

That said George B. Dolson was buried a few days thereafter in the cemetery in Winterset, Madison County, Iowa; that said George B. Dolson left no surviving spouse; that the only children of said George B. Dolson were said George E. Dolson, now deceased, Mary Frances Dolson, John Dolson and Isabella Dolson; that said Isabella Dolson was born February 4, 1863, and died January 4, 1864. That said John Dolson died in the year 1894, unmarried and without issue, leaving as his only heirs his father, said George B. Dolson, and his mother Ellen Dolson; that said Ellen Dolson died in the year 1917; that said Mary Frances Dolson married one Charles T. Peed; that when said Mary Frances Peed and her husband, Charles T. Peed, made a quit claim deed to George E. Dolson in the year 1920, recorded in Deed Record 99, of Madison County, Iowa, records, at Page 507, they conveyed and relinquished to said George E. Dolson any and all right, title, and interest they might have, or appear to have in or to the West Half of Lots 11 and 13 of the Southeast Quarter of Section 9, Township 76 North, Range 28 West of the 5th P.M., by reason of the fact that said Mary Frances Peed was a daughter of said George B. Dolson, deceased, and that in a quit claim deed made by James Rogan and Julia Rogan, his wife, in 1914, covering the West One-fourth of the South East Quarter of the South East quarter of Section 9, Township 76 North, Range 28 West of the 5th P.M., the name of the grantee was given as George B. Dolson, or for any other reason; and that by said quit claim deed from Mary Frances Peed and husband to said George E. Dolson, the right, title and interest of said George E. Dolson, the only other heir of said George B. Dolson, became complete in said real estate described therein; that at the time of his death, said George E. Dolson was the owner of real estate described as Lots Four (4), Eight (8), and Nine (9), and the West Half of Lots Eleven (11) and Thirteen (13), of the irregular survey of the Southeast Quarter of Section Nine (9), in Township 76 North, Range 28 West of the 5th P.M., in Madison County, Iowa, as shown by plat and survey thereof recorded in Deed Record 8, at page 291, of the records of Madison County, Iowa, and that said George E. Dolson had owned all of the said real estate since prior to January 1, 1930, and exercised control over all of it and received the rents and income therefrom and paid the taxes thereon from a point of time prior to January 1, 1930, until his death, and that since his death his widow, Rose A. Dolson, and his children, have exercised control over all of it, and have received the rents and income therefrom and have paid the taxes thereon, until sold under contract to Elmer Banks, of Madison County, Iowa. That said Rose A. Dolson never adopted any child or children and left no decendants of any deceased child or children and her only children and heirs at law were, and are, said Helen M. Mann, Mary F. DeSimone, George E. Dolson and Gerard Michael Dolson,

George E Dolson
