I, Phil R. Wilkinson, being duly sworn, depose and say: that I am a resident of Madison County, Iowa, and was born and raised in Madison County, Iowa; that I began the practice of law in Winterset, Iowa, in the year 1903, and at all points of time thereafter referred to in this affidavit I was engaged in the practice of law in Winterset, Iowa, until I began service as Judge of the District Court in the year 1947; that my father was an attorney and also a judge in this district, and at an early age I became acquainted with Amelia Bennett, who was at her death the owner of the East Half of the Southwest Quarter of Section 23, Township 77 North, Range 29 West of the 5th P. M., in Madison County, Iowa, and through the years I have been acquainted with said land and the ownership thereof; that Myron E. Bennett, the husband of said Amelia Bennett, was at one time sheriff of Madison County, Iowa; that I was well and personally acquainted with said Myron E. Bennett and Amelia Bennett and their children, and I was frequently a companion of their son, Charles R. Bennett; that said Myron E. Bennett and Amelia Bennett had four children, and only four children, to wit: William Edward Bennett, and Celinda Bennett, who married one Menefee, and was thereafter known as Celinda B. Menefee, and Cevilla E. Bennett, who married one William H. Taylor, and was thereafter known as Cevilla E. Taylor, and Charles R. Bennett, and they never adopted any child or children; that said Amelia Bennett died in the year 1924, and she was, at her death, and had been at all times since I first knew her, a legal resident of Madison County, Iowa, and her death was generally and publicly known in Madison County, Iowa, at the time it occurred; that said Amelia Bennett died intestate and no estate was ever probated for her, but all of the expenses of her last sickness and burial were paid and she left no debts, and the value of all of the property of which she died seized was much less than $15,000.00; that Myron E. Bennett, the husband of said Amelia Bennett, died prior to the death of said Amelia Bennett, and said Amelia Bennett left said William Edward Bennett and said two daughters surviving her, and she never remarried, and was a widow at the time of her death; that said Charles R. Bennett died prior to the death of his said mother, Amelia Bennett, his death having occurred in the year 1920, and he was a resident of Madison County, Iowa, at the time of his death, which occurred in Madison County, Iowa, and he was buried in Madison County, Iowa, and I was a pallbearer at his funeral; that said Charles R. Bennett was a married man, and he was survived by his wife and only one child, a daughter, Ruth Bennett, who was a minor at the time of his death, and he never adopted any child or children, and said Ruth Bennett survived said Amelia Bennett, her grandmother, and inherited the one-fourth share of the property of which said Amelia Bennett died seized, which said Charles R. Bennett would have taken if he had survived his mother, and said property included the said real estate hereinbefore described; that said William Edward Bennett removed from Madison County, Iowa, and has since died; that the interest which said Cevilla E. Taylor had in said real estate was acquired by said Celinda B. Menefee through a trustees' deed resulting from a bankruptcy matter; that said Celinda B. Menefee has died, and her estate is now pending in Madison County, Iowa, District Court, as No. 5409 Probate; that I am not related to any of said persons, and I have no interest in this matter, except to help establish the facts; all of which is true, as I verily believe.
