and the Goldie Arlene Hindman who are listed as heirs at law of the said Marion Harvey Hindman, deceased, in the Probate inventory, Report of Beneficiaries and Real Property and Preliminary Inheritance Tax Report filed in his estate on Oct. 10, 1942, and know that wherever the names Leland Marion Hindman and Leland M. Hindman appear in the record chain of title to said real estate or in said probate preceedings, said names refer to one and the same identical person, to-wit: the said Leland Marion Hindman; and that wherever the names Lorena Marie Hindman and Lorena Marie Dolmage appear in said record chain of title or in said probate proceedings, said names refer to one and the same identical person, to-wit: Lorena Marie Dolmage, the said Lorena Marie Hindman having intermarried with one Leonard S. Dolmage; and that wherever the names Goldie Arlene Hindman, Goldie Arlene Cutler and Arlene Cutler appear in said record chain of title or in said probate proceedings, said names refer to one and the same identical person, to-wit: Goldie Arlene Cutler, the said Goldie Arlene Hindman having intermarried with one Donald Tisdale Cutler.

That I am in no way interested and make this affidavit at the request of the present owners of the real estate herein referred to for the sole purpose of explaining discrepancies in names hereinabove set out.

AFFIDAVIT

State of Iowa, Madison County) ss:

I, Eunice Jane Robbins, of said county and state, being first duly sworn on oath depose and say that I have been a resident of Madison County, Iowa, for more than 20 years last past, and am well and personally acquainted with the Grace Wight of Hardin, Montana, mentioned in the 4th paragraph of the last will and testament of J. M. Robbins, deceased, whose estate was administered in the District Court of Madison County, Iowa, and know that she is the same and identical person as the Grace Wight Gemmill mentioned in the final report filed in said estate as having received advancements totaling $9,698.33 prior to the death of said J. M. Robbins, and that she is also the same and identical person as the Grace L. Gemmill, one of the grantors in the warranty deed to Clarence J. Goettsch, recorded in Town Lot Deed Record 26, page 311, of the records of Madison County, Iowa. I further state that the said Grace Wight Gemmill is now past 73 years of age, and that her youngest child attained legal majority more than ten years ago and that the total value of the estate of said J. M. Robbins did not exceed the sum of $48,000, and that said Grace Wight Gemmill received no distribution on final settlement of said estate.

I further state that I am in no way interested in the title to the real estate affected by this affidavit, but make the same at the request of the present owner thereof for the purpose of establishing of record the facts above set forth.

I, David Denly, of said county and state, being first duly sworn on my oath, depose and say that I was well and personally acquainted with James W. Patterson and John F. Patterson, sons and heirs at law of George W. Patterson, deceased, during their lifetime, and know of my own personal knowledge that the said James W. Patterson died intestate on or about March 3, 1943, being at the time of his death a resident of the State of Illinois, and that he left surviving him his spouse, Anna F. Patterson, and his son and only heir at
