NOTE

For the classes of persons born outside of the United States and its outlying possessions who acquire nationality and citizenship of the United States at birth, see Title III, Chapter I of the Immigration and Nationality Act: Section 301 (a), paragraphs (3), (4), (7); section 303; section 308, subsection (2); and section 309.

As to persons who acquire citizenship of the United States under section 301 (a), paragraph (7), or persons who were born abroad subsequent to May 24, 1934, of parents one of whom was at the time a citizen of the United States, while the other was an alien, the officer by whom this report of birth is prepared should notify the American parent, or, if that is impracticable, the alien parent, that under the provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of section 301, the child whose birth is reported herein will be divested of citizenship of the United States if he or she fails to come to the United States and remain physically present therein for 5 years between the ages of 14 and 28 years.

(Subsections (a), (7), (b), and (c) of section 301 do not operate to restore citizenship to a child born abroad subsequent to May 24, 1934, who, under the terms of subsection (g) and (h) of section 201 of the Nationality Act of 1940 ceased to be a citizen before 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard Time December 24, 1952, by reason of his having failed to take up residence in the United States before his sixteenth birthday.)
