AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION

Leslie R. Goeldner, being duly sworn says he is the publisher of The Earlham Echo, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published in Earlham, Madison County, Iowa, and that the following is a part of a news story printed in the issue of said paper on January 12, 1928 pertaining to the marriage of Effie Kisling and Clair Miller. The original copy of this paper is in the files of the Earlham Echo.

"The couple were Clair Miller, of Redfield, and Miss Effie Kisling, of Adel. Holding a Madison County license, and encountering difficulty in obtaining a wedding at Winterset, the couple repaired to Earlham and besought the services of Justice Jones, who was then on supply duty for Manager Moreland at the oil station. Dan was perfectly willing to accomodate and in a few minutes the couple were able to go on their way happily in wedlock. There is no use being a J. P. if you don't
